A Catholic Faith-Based Education...

From the age of five, our children will spend nearly a third of their waking hours in school.

At St. Louis Catholic School, we:

- * Emphasize respect, responsibility, and human compassion
- * Provide daily religion classes and weekly student-prepared Masses
- * Prepare for the sacraments of Confirmation, Reconciliation, and First Communion

With Rigorous Academics...

St. Louis Catholic School offers an outstanding academic program for kindergarten through eighth grade in an intimate class setting.

- * Weekly Art, Music, Spanish & Physical Education classes
- * 90% of our students in grades 4-8 achieve Honor Roll
- * Upper grade students score 2 years above grade level on the Iowa Test of Basic Skills
- * Extracurricular opportunities include MathCounts, Speech, Geography Bee & Newspaper

In A Nurturing Community Which Reinforces Family Values

With just one class per grade, we are able to create a family atmosphere in the school, where older classes are actively involved with younger students.

- * The entire family has the opportunity to get involved in school and parish activities.
- * After school athletics promote teamwork.
- * No student is anonymous.

Our philosophy of positive discipline, in which faculty and students work together to resolve problems, helps to develop self-esteem, accountability and self-discipline.

Our Mission

The goal of St. Louis Catholic School is to bring children to the richness of the Catholic faith through instruction, example, and sacramental practice.

St. Louis prepares students for success by imparting knowledge, developing study skills, fostering problem solving, and encouraging inquiry.

Why Choose St. Louis School?

- Outstanding K-8 Academic Program
- Intimate Learning Community
- Daily Religion Classes & Sacrament Preparation
- Before & After School Care
- After School Sports Programs
- Financial Aid for Eligible Families
- Reduced Tuition for Multiple Students
- Advanced District Accreditation

At the heart of our Catholic faith is a sense of joy and hope for the future, love and respect for others, and the knowledge that God is with us in everything we do.

St. Louis is conveniently located in the heart of Englewood near Hampden & Broadway, just 2 blocks from Swedish Medical Center.

The Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools give parents confidence that their investment in a Catholic Schools' education will support their child's complete development and personal success. A rigorous, time-tested curriculum taught by committed faculty in a faith-based and nurturing environment results in measurably accomplished academic achievement. Catholic teachings, faith and traditions are integral to a curriculum that reinforces what is taught as home, including virtues of discipline, respect and responsibility. These will provide guidance and inspiration as your child navigates life's challenges.
